This comparatively new arrival, run by Laila Jones and Andy Slavin, is a jolly cafe-restaurant with a burnt orange colour scheme and a menu that plays on the equally warm flavours of North Africa and Southern Spain – think spiced lamb tagine, fish cakes with preserved lemon aioli or a dessert of honey and date creme brulee. A morning on the terrace is also recommended, for baked eggs on chunky tomato and capsicum sauce with merguez sausage, and a rosewater and mint-spiked watermelon juice. 2/257 Gympie Tce, Noosaville, (07) 5455 6688.
